WHAT:

In cooperation with the Texas Workforce Commission, Texas Medical Center, and Governor Greg Abbott, Workforce Solutions Brazos Valley (WSBV) will host its sixth annual Hiring Red, White, & You! (HRWY) Statewide Job Fair for veterans, transitioning service members and their spouses and the general public.

WHO:

The event will feature opening remarks from Representative John Raney, Texas House of Representative, District 14, and Lowell Keig a representative from the Texas Workforce Commission.

Over 30 employers are expected to participate. All are interested in hiring to fill open positions.

WHEN:

10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.
Thursday, November 9, 2017

WHERE:

Center for Regional Services
3991 East 29th Street
Bryan, TX 77802

WHY:

It is estimated that there are 927,000 veterans in Texas who are eligible for work. The Hiring Red, White, & You! Job Fair provides veterans, transitioning service members and their spouses with an easy way to connect with employers who value the experience, discipline, and other exceptional qualities inherent in a military background. The HRWY Job Fair has connected thousands of veterans with more than 300 employers since 2014 in the Brazos Valley alone.
